William Hoffman is an associate attorney with Ansbacher Law. Mr. Hoffman earned his Juris Doctor from the University of Florida Levin College of Law, where he was involved with Moot Court, the John Marshall Bar Association, and the Jewish Legal Society. He joined Ansbacher Law as a law clerk in the summer of 2025, gaining firsthand experience supporting the firm's litigation practice.

Before joining Ansbacher Law, Mr. Hoffman gained experience in civil and complex commercial litigation, including drafting appellate briefs, motions, and legal memoranda, conducting legal research, and working on matters involving insurance disputes, landowner disputes, and product defects. He earned his Bachelor of Arts in Political Science from Pennsylvania State University, where he was named to the Dean's List and served as president of Alpha Epsilon Pi.

As an associate attorney, Mr. Hoffman splits his time between Ansbacher Law's Coral Gables and Orlando offices, where he focuses his practice on construction defect matters. He assists clients throughout the various stages of construction defect disputes, including reviewing contract documents, preparing and analyzing defect notices, drafting motions, coordinating with experts, supporting defect investigations, and assisting with trial preparation.
